Art & Lou Hatch owned this flour & gristmill located on Mill Creek near Lake Winnebago. The mill was powered by water. The Hatch brothers moved the building to the east side of the village on County Trunk E. The Hatch brothers sold their business to Philip Schweitzer and E.A. Pingel who sold it to Paul Kissinger, who in turn sold it to Bill Janty. In 1932, while under the ownership of Bill Janty, this building burned down as a result of spontaneous combustion. He built a new one-story building on the same site. In 1936, he sold the mill to John Carney and Justin Grogan. One year later, Grogan sold his share to Carney who then operated it until 1946 when it was purchased by Jake Heimbach. Heimbach operated the mill until 1964 when it was closed. Pictured driving the car is John Ricker.
